

Bottomless Lunch Terms and Conditions

The commencement of the 2-hour package is from no later than 15 minutes from the start of the booking and may be cut short if subsequent bookings have been allocated and guests are significantly late. It is the responsibility of the booking customer to arrive on time.

No takeaways are permitted whatsoever unless paid for in addition to the package.

All members of the group or table must participate in the package. Anyone not paying for the full package may not consume any drinks or food included in the package and may be charged the full amount of the package if they do so. Participants may in some circumstances be required to vacate tables immediately after the end of their package.

Drinks are limited to the two-hour period of the package. At the end of the period participants may have the remaining drinks in their glasses but should finish with empty jugs.

To limit food wastage, requested pizzas must be consumed completely before the next round is ordered. Staff may limit the number of pizzas toward the end of the package to avoid wastage.

Provided pizzas options are at the staff's discretion but they will endeavor take requests where possible.

Drinks are standardised to one standard drink per glass equivalent to 10 grams of alcohol.

Staff may limit drinks based on the Responsible Service of Alcohol guidelines, especially in the case of intoxicated persons. In the event of disruptive behaviour participants will have the remainder of their package forfeited at staff discretion.
